Dear Mr. Myers:

Thank you very much for your letter of May 6 inviting Mrs. Dulles and me to participate in the special Evening Service honoring Woodrow Wilson.

It is with deep regret that I must decline your kind invitation since my schedule calls for me to be away from the city at that time.

Sincerely,

Signed

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Princeton Club of Washington, under date of April 30th, has invited all Princeton men and their wives to participate in a special Evensong Service honoring Woodrow Wilson. It will be held in the Great Choir of the Washington Cathedral at 4:00 P.M., Thursday, May 15. Immediately after the brief memorial service, President Goheen will present the Princeton flag to the Cathedral in Bethlehem Chapel for use in the Woodrow Wilson Bay. I am told the ceremony in its entirety will take less than one hour.

I have been asked to send personal invitations to Princeton men who knew Wilson while at Princeton. I am sure those of us who were influenced by him in our earlier years will want to take this passive part in the symbolic tribute of Princeton's new President to his illustrious predecessor.

Sincerely,

Paul F. Myers, 1913
